TO WHO IT MAY CONCERN

This is to certify that Aman Parikh, student of Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan's Sardar Patel Institute of Technology, has undergone four weeks of internship from July 1, 2020 to July 31, 2020 with our Company.

During the internship he worked on php mysql backend with HTML CSS at the front end and also played an important role in AKVI® Sales and Shipping Logistics Management System. He showed a keen interest in learning and implementing the technologies in the best possible way. His knowledge on these technologies have sure increased under our guidance.

We would want to mention a special appreciation for his hard work and a note of complement on the work done on the live project given to him. His association with us was very fruitful and we wish him all the best in his future endeavors.
